

Copyright

Go to <http://www.commoncraft.com/video/copyright-and-creative-commons> and watch the video on Copyright. Below the video is a transcript of the video. You may translate the transcript into Korean to help you better understand what copyright is.

Also go to <http://www.commoncraft.com/video/plagiarism> and learn about plagiarism. Again, you may translate the transcript.

Go to <http://www.loc.gov/teachers/copyrightmystery/?#/copyright/> and watch Copyright Exposed and Reading the Fine Print. Copyright exposed gives you examples of creative content and Reading the Fine Print is FAQs (Frequently Asked Questions) about copyright.

Try some Copyright activities at Quia

http://www.quia.com/rr/411965.html?AP_rand=228366445

http://www.quia.com/mc/1960687.html?AP_rand=1106945902

<http://www.quia.com/jg/1713599.html>

http://www.quia.com/quiz/867712.html?AP_rand=508918821 (substitute TBS for Bryant & Stratton)

When you have a better understanding of copyright complete the worksheet titled Is That Copy Right?

(There is a page with copyright links on my class website.)

Josh Young – Watch the 2 common craft videos above and study Plagiarism at <http://library.camden.rutgers.edu/EducationalModule/Plagiarism/whatisplagiarism.html> and the two other movies at the bottom of the page.

Write a paragraph about plagiarism. List 5 things you already knew and at least one thing you learned.

Everyone... Extra time... watch A Fair(y) Use Tale at http://www.teachertube.com/viewVideo.php?video_id=134681&vpkey=&play_list=pl&playlist_id=35.